

I'm a Changed Man

Otis Redding

Learn how to love
Learn how to walk
Learn how to talk
Like a baby talk

Learn how to see
See what I want
Learn how a baby
Does and I don'ts

And I'm a changed man
I've been baptised
And I'm a changed man
I'm a brand new guy, yeah, yeah, yeah

Allright let me tell you, mama
You put a feeling in my soul
You make me fast that I had them holes
You did this, baby
You did that
You little girl you showed me where I was at

Now I'm a changed man
I've been baptised
And I'm a changed man
I'm a brand new guy, yeah, yeah

Allright, let me sing it
Ja, Ja, Ja etc.
Allright, you made a change in me, mama

Bet you're a man
Whose life is a blink
So messed up, you know
He couldn't even think

But you came along
Stopped my own going
Gave me enough love
To keep five minutes going

And I'm a changed man
I've been baptised
And I'm a changed man
I'm a brand new guy, yeah, yeah, yeah

Allright, let me sing my song know

Ja, Ja, Ja etc.

You gave me love
You gave me everything
Gave me love
Brought my heart sing
You gave me pants
You gave me clothes
You gave me something to thin my holes, now

Oughta, Ja, Ja, Ja etc...
