

Nothing Can Change This Love

Otis Redding

If I go million miles away
I'll write a letter each and every day now
Oh, honey, nothing, nothing, nothing
Nothing is ever gonna change this love
I have for you, oh no, oh no

You can make me weep
Or you can make me moan
Tell me you just got back, darling
I'll just say, "Well, welcome home now"

For honey, nothing, nothing in this world
Could ever stop this love
Could ever stop this love
I have for you, oh no, oh no

Oh, you're the apple of my eye
My sweet little cherry pie
..., you can be
My cake and ice cream

Sugar and spice
Everything nice
You can be the
Girl of my dreams

If you would only
When you get back, when you get back
I'll just say, "Well, welcome home now"

Oh my darling, nothing
Nothing, nothing
Nothing could ever change
This love I have for you, oh no, oh no
