

All You Did Was Save My Life

Our Lady Peace

You, looked at me as you walked in the room
Like the red sea, you split me open
Somehow I knew these wings were stolen
All you did was save my life

Tried to run but I couldn't move
Well I paid for these concrete shoes
Like a singer that sings the blues
You saw hope in the hopeless

I'm not dying
All you did was save my life
Pulled me out of that flat line
Put the heartbeat back inside
I'm not dying
All you did was get me through
I owe every breathe to you
Heart and soul unparalyzed
All you did was save my life

Save my life

I'm not for sale but I've been sold
The more I hear the less I know
The lies are swallowed whole
In there insignificance
The story's been told a million times but it's different when it's your life
I won the lottery tonight
The lottery tonight

I'm not dying
All you did was save my life
Pulled me out of that flat line
Put the heartbeat back inside

I'm not dying
All you did was get me through
I owe every breathe to you
Heart and soul unparalyzed
All you did was save my life

I started to come around
The dogs are backing down
I'm not afraid to see

The devil's gone underground
This tightropes been cut down
And I can finally breathe

You, looked at me as I walked in the room
Like the red sea you split me open
Somehow I knew these wings were stolen

I'm not dying
All you did was save my life
Pulled me out of that flat line

Put the heart beat back inside

I'm not dying
All you did was get me through
I owe every breathe to you
Heart and soul unparalyzed
All you did was save my life

All you did was save my life
(Put the heart beat back inside)
All you did was save my life
(Put the heart beat back inside)
All you did was save my life
