

Carnival

Our Lady Peace

You know you're not a strong man and you're just about to cry hang on it's all right you worry about the future the sign said "Yoga class for cats" it's okay...

The dynamite is waiting they bankrupted the sky

You're frustrated by the cracks in the pavement
and every mother's back... once again
the carnival closed down but if this world ever turns around you'll be there when everyone is sane you'll be there
