

Distance Is Destroying Me

Our Last Night

Are you ok?
I've been sitting here for days on end
I'm half awake,
And I'm thinking about the choices I've made

The distance is destroying me
Slowly eating me away
From the inside out
Like a parasite
You could be the only one
Who could save me now
You could be the only one
Who could save me now

Are you ok?
I've been sitting here for days on end
I'm half awake,
And I'm thinking about the choices I've made

The distance is destroying me
It's erasing my memory
And cutting deep into my bones
Like a chainsaw

Are you ok?
I've been sitting here for days on end
I'm half awake,
And I'm thinking about the choices I've made
The roads are closed
And there's nowhere to go
So coast to coast, I'll drive until my eyes are closed

They can watch me bleed
Put salt in my wounds
Makes me weak

Are you ok?
I've been sitting here for days on end
I'm half awake,
And I'm thinking about the choices I've made
The roads are closed
And there's nowhere to go
So coast to coast, I'll drive until my eyes are closed
