

I'll Be Breathing

Our Last Night

Don't come back looking for more
'Cause it's now or never in this world
You can tell yourself not to hold back
But sooner or later you'll break

I'll be breathing, you'll be bleeding
Just spill out everything
And try to patch up your scars (And try to patch up your scars)
We used to be the greatest (Everything, like fire to a match)
And we will never be what I hoped
So I've stopped wishing and hoping now

(I can't think of you 'cause these dreams are through)
I can't think of you 'cause these dreams are through
'cause these dreams are through)

I'll be breathing, you'll be bleeding
Just spill out everything
And try to patch up your scars (And try to patch up your scars)
We used to be the greatest (Everything, like fire to a match)
And we will never be what I hoped
So I've stopped wishing and hoping now

Wishing and hoping now

I'll be breathing, you'll be bleeding
Just spill out everything
And try to patch up your scars (And try to patch up your scars)

I'll be breathing, you'll be bleeding
Just spill out everything
And try to patch up your scars

[Screamer]

You used to be so great
You used to be the greatest one out of every one

I'll be breathing, you'll be bleeding
Just spill out everything
And try to patch up your scars (And try to patch up your scars)
We used to be the greatest (Everything, like fire to a match)
And we will never be what I hoped
So I've stopped wishing and hoping now
