

Invincible

Our Last Night

I can't move my feet, cause they're stuck to the ground.
It's hard to pick my head up, but so easy to keep down.
I wanna hear my heart as it's starting to pound.
I miss that sound.

And I've been so stuck that I have to admit.
I'm hardly motivated by the same old shit.
I wanna be invincible.
I wanna be invincible.

I wanna be invincible.
I wanna be invincible.

I can't help but feel like I've messed this up.
I'll never see the sunlight if my eyes are always shut.
Sometimes I feel like I'm about to quit.
But it's about that time I get over it.
I wanna be invincible.
I wanna be invincible.

I wanna be invincible.
I wanna be invincible.

I'm sailing my ship away from the shore.
I need to turn it around before it sink to the floor.

I wanna be invincible.
I wanna be invincible.
I wanna be invincible.
