

I found myself in a vicious cycle
My eyes wide shut and I can't sleep
I'm holding on to every bit of faith
A fractured mind to help us create
Such little time don't let it go to waste
I can't run away

I never thought it would be something so haunting
Suffocated by the weight of everything
I never knew I could put this all behind me, behind me
I'm living now, now, I'm living now, now

I spend my days, forever fearing
The things in life that I can't change
I'm searching for any sort of means
My restless heart when you helped me to breathe
Now is the time, I set myself free

I never thought it would be something so haunting
Suffocated by the weight of everything
I never knew I could put this all behind me, behind me
I'm living now, now, I'm living now, now

I'm living now
I couldn't take it, not any longer
I cut myself over nothing
I couldn't take it any longer
So I dug myself out of this vengeful grave
And learned to live, so I dug myself out
I feel alive again, I can finally breathe

I never thought it would be something so haunting
Suffocated by the weight of everything
I never knew I could put this all behind
I'm living now, now, I'm living now, now

I'm living now, I'm living now
I never thought it would be something so haunting
I'm living now, I'm living now
Suffocated by the weight of everything
I'm living now, I'm living now
I never knew I could put this all behind me, behind me
I'm living now, I'm living now
