

Scared Of Change

Our Last Night

I was scared of change,
Knowing nothing would be the same.
Stressed and overwhelmed,
I began to cave.
My mind was spinning in circles,
So out of control.
I closed my eyes
And hoped for acceptance

Anxious and barely breathing
Watching my mind turn inside out
(inside out)
Nervous, my hands were shaking
Everything was slowly fading away
(But I'll be okay)

I'll be okay.

The clouds roll over the hills
The sun begins to shine,
I say goodbye to the worried ghost
That was trapped inside. Set me free,
From the darkness that covered me

Anxious and barely breathing
Watching my mind turn inside out
(inside out)
Nervous, my hands were shaking
Everything was slowly fading away
(But I'll be okay)

My life may change,
But it won't change me
(it won't change me)
Cause I'm always gonna be
Who I wanna be
I can feel the pages burning
Faster than the wheels are turning
But my head stays high.

My life may change,
But it won't change me
(it won't change me)
Cause I'm always gonna be
Who I wanna be
I can feel the pages burning
Faster than the wheels are turning
But my head stays high.

Anxious and barely breathing
Watching my life turn inside out
(inside out)
Nervous, my hands were shaking
Everything was slowly fading away
(But I'll be okay)

My life may change,

But it won't change me
(it won't change me)
Cause I'm always gonna be
Who I wanna be
I can feel the pages burning
Faster than the wheels are turning
But my head stays high.
