

I Want Everything

Out Of The Grey

I'm on this journey to the holy land
My heart is searching for a sacred romance
Following the echoes of a love song long ago
I watch for my returning hero

All these diversions and distractions
Leave my desires unsatisfied
Because he set eternity inside my heart
I'll be restless 'til I'm resting in his arms

I'm gonna keep searching, I gotta keep hoping
'Cause I want everything, I want everything
I'm never gonna settle 'cause I want better, I want everything
I want everything he promised me

You've given me a heart for the journey
You've given me a part in this story of yours
I'm a new creation, I can't stay the same
I have an expectation someday things will change

I'm gonna keep searching, I gotta keep hoping
'Cause I want everything, I want everything
I'm never gonna settle 'cause I want better, I want everything
I want everything you promised me

I want holy, I want lovely, I want grace
I want passion, I want poetry and coffee
Oh, I want everything

I'm gonna keep searching, I gotta keep hoping
'Cause I want everything, I want everything
And I'm never gonna settle 'cause I want better, I want everyth ing
I want everything, and everything

I'm never gonna settle
'Cause I want every, I want everything, yeah everything
I'm never gonna settle 'cause I want better, I want everything
Yeah everything
