

This Is What It Is

Out Of The Grey

You say, you want to believe me
But it's too good to be true for you
Well, I say faith doesn't come easy
Sometimes, it takes a broken heart
To see the beauty of the simple truth

This is what it is
A love that doesn't leave
This is what it is
Forgiveness that forgets

This is what it is
A Savior full of grace
Who gave His life that you might live

So live your life, fill the time
While you hope for something more
Yet every morning begs the question
That every heart has heard
It's something deeper still
You can't put into words

You've got a purpose in this place
This is what it is
But it gets better than this
You've got a reason to live
