

Waiting

Out Of The Grey

I hesitated for a moment
And now I'm waiting for some momentum
Because this journey comes with few guarantees

Of what happens in between
Between the start and the finale
What will become of me?

I've been waiting for a signal
Waiting for a sign
Praying for a single song with a catchy rhyme

To take me out of limbo
Maybe this could be the time
We've been trying to find

I'm the metal, He's the magnet
Me the moth and He the flame
I cannot stay here, for the one I love
Is calling my name

I'm not waiting for a signal
Or waiting for a sign
I'll just keep on singing songs even if they don't rhyme

Living here has been good
But I must be going now
You know it's moving time

And I will shake awake my soul
Though countless times a day it takes
To urge myself on in this way

For the other side is a certainty
And I know you're there
You promised me, yeah

I'm not waiting for a signal
Or waiting for a sign
I'll just be here singing about the reasons why

Living here has been good
But I'm not afraid to go
Don't you know it's moving time

I ain't waiting for a signal
Or waiting for sign
Praying for a single with a catchy rhyme

'Cause You take me out of limbo
Tell me that I need to go
I know it's moving time
So come on, move it!
