

3 Cheers Forever

Outasight

Don't care if it's mine or yours, taking all this time to talk
Hop skip the monologue, out from the London fog
Run the game and never jog, full sprint
Bull shit, thinking I'm the under card
I'm the main event, favorite, own space, no paying rent
Paper chase and paper get, hustling the way I did
I should probably make a scene
I should probably break something
I should probably give on in
But I kept on keeping on, tip toed to the top 'cause they was sleepin g on
Now I'm gon ring alarms, style with a certain charm
Make a brother one of one, shooting my mouth off
I'm a son of a gun and ready to come, shooting down all fear
'Cause forever is here, cheers, cheers, cheers

Hey babe, have you heard the news?
The boy is back and he can't lose
Some people tried to put him down
Guess whose back around
If forever is here, cheers, cheers, cheers

And I don't care about paying dues
Born to win, no way to choose, sitting back and making moves
Headline, breaking news, yeah, I'm erasing rules
Pencil to the page with the fade, incredible
Stamps on the passport, feet up on the dashboard
Windows seat g5, look out, that's yours
Getting what you ask for, said it on Fame and Fortune, I'm after all
Not a moment too soon, heart so tender, you can cut it with a spoon
Get to bed at five, wake up 'round noon
New York times, page six, gatecrash on view and what's it to you?
Lighting up a parliament, starting up an argument
One way or another, never am I on the fence, true

Hey babe, have you heard the news?
The boy is back and he can't lose
Some people tried to put him down
Guess whose back around
If forever is here, cheers, cheers, cheers
Cheers, cheers, cheers

Hey babe, have you heard the news?
The boy is back and he can't lose
Hey babe, have you heard the news?
The boy is back and he can't lose
If forever is here, if forever is here, cheers
If forever is here, if forever is here, cheers, cheers
