

Skipping Stones

Over It

He's just a little boy lost inside his little world.
Will he find his way back home?
He's just a little boy, lost his mind over a girl.
Will he call her on the phone?
If I showed you how I cared would you be so scared that you would turn your head away?
If I told you this was real would you believe in how I feel so that you can face the day.
