

Blood and Iron

Overkill

Out for blood, take no prisoners
Out for the kill, and looking for donors.
As terror strikes, give your life
We drink your blood, a human sacrifice.

Ahh! Stick in the knife
Uhh... For blood and iron
Iron!
Blood and iron

Thirst for more, our chosen path
Awake and find the Devil's wrath!
All those who dare and those who disobey
Alone you'll find, dead... as yesterday

Ahh! Fight for you life
For blood and iron...
Iron!
Blood and iron!!!

All right donors! Donate!!!

Flesh of steel, a legion of donors
We are one... as our blood transfers
New found power raging through your veins
Blood metal donors eat! the last remains

For blood!!! and iron!!!
