

Sleeping with a time bomb
Rumble in my dreams
Innocence been long gone
Fall apart at the seams

Looking through the windows, walking through the doors
I can't help this feeling, I been here before
Everything is different, Everything the same
I know the rules, I played the game!

Cry out! Tell me what its gonna be!
Reach out! Is everything the same...?
Cry out! Tell me what you really see!
Reach out!

A coma steals my name...
Coma... Coma... Coma!

Wake to an explosion
Nothing seemed so real
Innocence corroding
Alone is all I feel

Reaching out to no one, knowing no one's there
Afraid to be afraid of another nameless fear
I got all the reasons, don't need no more
Blinded by illusions, locked behind the door

Cry out! Tell me what its gonna be
Reach out! Is everything the same...?
Cry out! Tell me what you really see
Reach out!

An' a coma stole my name...

Coma! Coma! Coma!

Sleeping now forever
Murdered in my dreams.
Innocence was never
Goin' to extremes.

Busting through the windows, kickin' down the doors
Standing up for me, never did before
Now I lay me down to sleep, and if I die before I wake

Cry out! Tell me what you really see
Reach out! Is everything the same...?
Cry out! Tell me what it's gonna be
Reach out! An' a coma stole my name...
Coma... Coma... Coma!

I'm outta the dive an' comin' alive.
