

Death Rider

Overkill

The blistin of steel
The black of night
The leather clad warrior rides
Traveling along not a will of his own
He will not be denied
Judges the man?
He does not understand
The meaning of wrong or right
A sadistical slave?
He cannot be saved
He's programmed to destroy tonight
Death Rider
Run for your life
A prophet of doom
The demon's device
Answering only the master's call.
By the crack of dawn
He will have killed them all
Decantation and mutation
Innocent victims die
Ride the pain
The concrete stain
He cannot tell them why
Through the terror
He rides forever
Computerized power and rage
We shiver in fear
As tonight he comes near Inhumanity in his head
Death Rider
Run for your life
A prophet of doom
The demon's device
Answering only the master's call.
By the crack of dawn
He will have killed them all
Better look behind
When midnight shines
Death Rider is set to attack
The look in his eye
The glow in the sky
Nocturnal power in black
The Blistin of steel
The black of night
The leather clad warrior rides
Traveling along not a will of his own
He will not be denied
Death Rider
Run for your life
A prophet of doom
The demon's device
Answering only the master's call.
By the crack of dawn
He will have killed them all
