

Deny the Cross

Overkill

I'll steal your life and cut out your heart
Rip the core of your world apart
Then I'll take your sight, leave ya blind
Laughing hard as you loose your mind

Smash in your skull! Kick out your brains!
Dance all over! What remains!?

~Life!~ The living danger
~Death!~ The welcome stranger
~In sin!~ You deny the cross, deny the cross

I'm an angel, I'm virgin white
This only happens every night
Restitution for my sin
Imprisoned virtue, time begins

Killer instincts escape my find!
Path of destruction left behind!

~Life!~ The living danger
~Death!~ The welcome stranger
~In sin!~ You deny the cross, deny the cross

Life, it walks away, it walks today, it fades away
Death is here to stay, is here today to deny the cross

Draw and quarter, slice the meat
Now there's something more to eat
Nothing left, there is just a frame
This poor soul has no name

Back to dirt! Six feet deep!
I take a breath long and deep!

~Life!~ The living danger
~Death!~ The welcome stranger
~In sin!~ You deny the cross, deny the cross
