

Fatal if Swallowed

Overkill

Lust is the fire which warms you in the night scorching the edge of your soul
I am desire, your eyes are filled with light; pleasing the master your goal
Like a fly to a spider against my web you fight, my poison dousing your flame
Call on the liar to fill the hole with light; your feelings went as I came

Fatal if swallowed! My love's too much to hold
A deadly poison, a hot and heavy load
Fatal if swallowed! A love you can't resist
Another believer is sealed with a kiss

Animal attraction, the numbing of your flesh; no reason to let this action wait
Your physical convulsions, the quiver of your lips open up, ah! take the bait
You taste it, revolting, wishing you were dead; the effect you'll never grow old Oozing slime foaming at the mouth; so dizzy! The poison takes its toll

Fatal if swallowed! My love's too much to hold
A deadly poison, a hot and heavy load
Fatal if swallowed! A love you can't resist
Another believer is sealed with a kiss

No protection, forced injection
Feel the bite, feel the sting
No detection, slow infection
Now you know what goodlovin' brings

Are you a believer or are you just a corpse, a worm eaten mass of disgust?
Yeah, I'm a deceiver, the reaper, a lurch, the reason your driven by lust
But your not the first, you won't be the last; I lead, others will follow
No mercy, forgiveness, no begging for reprieve; my venom, fatal if swallowed!!!

Fatal if swallowed! My love's too much to hold
A deadly poison, a hot and heavy load
Fatal if swallowed! A love you can't resist
Another believer is sealed with a kiss
Ooo, with a kiss... Fatal... Kiss this...

Open up wide, I'm cummin' inside!
