

I Rise

Overkill

Voluntary action,
Leading to the scar upon the face
Planning the reaction, the color
The moment paint the place
In blood, in fire
Calling you back home to the demise
In black, desire
Calling you, witnessing the rise

God damn this light
Take it out
Let me see what you to hide
The parasite has his way
Until the day
I rise

In pure retribution,
Remorseful as the moment of his birth
In reconciliation,
He ponders a solution in the dirt
In blood, in fire
A blessing to the few, immortalize
In black, desire
A calling to the witness of the rise

God damn this light
Take it out
Let me see what you to hide
The parasite has his way
Until the day
I rise

Awaken, in time
God, self, liberty
Fire in my locked eternity

Soaring, climbing
Self, god, liberty
Broken by my
Drive to set it free
Fire in my freedom
Hatred in my heart
Long live the kingdom
As the king does fall apart

Back off the ceremony
Count all the flies
Fight through the maggots
To reach the underly
Push to infinity
Laughs replaced by cries
Push into liberty
Sanctify the rise
God damn this light
It's in my eyes
God damn the will to kill me
God damn your pride

God damn this light
Take it out
The parasite has his way
Until the day

God damn this light
Take it out
The parasite has his way
Until the day
I rise

Rise...
