

The One

Overkill

An all out panic, thrashing
Splitting you in half
Mistook your sobbing for a laugh
Travel close concealed,
I'll leave the door ajar
So who has taken you this far?

Call if you need
I'm right over here
With my finger on the trigger
And if you need me
Fall, and you'll bleed
As the demon appear
It's time to stand, deliver
And if you know me

I am your stand and deliver
I am your shot, the golden gun
I am your voice in the sliver
I am, I am, I am the one
I am your stand and deliver
I am your shot, the golden gun
I am your voice in the sliver
I am, I am, I am the one

Now when you get inside,
Be careful what you say
Don't be mistaken for the prey
Low to ground is best
Attend to the bizarre
So who has taken you this far?
I've seen you before

Call if you need
I'm right over here
With my finger on the trigger
And if you need me
Fall, and you'll bleed
When the demon appear
It's time to stand, deliver
And if you know me

I am your stand and deliver
I am your shot, the golden gun
I am your voice in the sliver
I am, I am, I am the one
I am your stand and deliver
I am your shot, the golden gun
I am your voice in the sliver
I am, I am, I am the one

I am the one...
I'm the only son, with a loaded gun

I am your stand and deliver
I am your shot, the golden gun
I am your voice in the sliver

I am, I am, I am the one
I am your stand and deliver
I am your shot, the golden gun
I am your voice in the sliver
I am, I am, I am the one
