

The Sound of Dying

Overkill

Listen up, now
Got a fistful of reason
And a faceful of fear
That I wear with a frown
As the killer does bow
Time will allow
As I pass through the season
And it all comes clear that
The killer I see
Is the most I fear
Is the killer in me, yeah

Take me, where I gotta go
Show me, what I need to know
Where I gotta go
Here it comes now
The sound ya hear,
Crystal clear
Is the sound of fear
The sound of dying, dying

Right to a fault
Methodic perfection
There's a road to the left
That I walk to see,
Does the killer know me?
Come into the vault
With a daily rejection
And on through the tears
That the killer I see
Is the most I fear
Is the killer in me, yeah

Take me, where I gotta go
Show me, what I need to know
Where I gotta go
Here it comes now
The sound ya hear,
Crystal clear
Is the sound of fear

Just for killing
Just to gotta move me
Just in time
Because, someone better kill me
Dumb and willing
Just enough to lose me
Killer come calling
On a misty night in Jersey
Ah-ah-ah
Will you let him in?
Will you be his friend?
Will you take him to the place
Where you want it to end?
Killer comes callin'

Hear the sound of dying

Listen up, now
As I pass through the season
The killer I see
Is the most I fear

Take me, where I gotta go
Where I gotta go
Here it comes now
The sound ya hear,
Crystal clear
