

Undying

Overkill

Wake up, baby, Daddy's comin' to crack your skull in two
Hit you like a hammer, baby, down to play a fool

No to the kicking, no more to say
No having just one meaning
Nothing left to say, no way, no

Surface the anger through immortality
Never be undying
(Undying)
Undying
(Undying)

Wake up, break down Daddy's comin'
All you heard is true
So bite your lip and shut your mouth
It's no longer up to you

No to the licking, no more to say
No leavin' you alone
Nothing more to say, no way, no

Surface the anger, immortality
Should you be undying?
(Undying)
Undying
(Undying)

No forgiveness
No more to say, no way, no

Surface the anger, immortality
You never were undying
(Undying)
Undying
(Undying)

Undying, you never be undying
You never were undying
You never seem undying
Should you be undying?
