

Most Nights

Owen

Lay my head on a pillow, another on my head lightly
Pull the blankets up just over my mouth... breathe I'll spend time thinking about the people I know how I feel and if it shows
I turn over
I've got a girl in my bed
Who's more sure of what she says
Than what she hears (oh it's true)
I've got a song in my head
I'm sure I won't remember
Come morning
May my mind be at ease
Oh please come morning
