

Don't Call Me Cunt

Oxymoron

Now it's time to pull you in You're annoying me and cause some bad emotions
Your whole life's a sin
You're a reason why I justify abortion
No guts, no pride only slander of a miserable mind Your gossip makes you a git and I see what's at the bottom of it

Deride me, backbite me Mister Twister, do you have fun in that ?
but finally I've had enough Cunt DON'T CALL ME CUNT
You fucker, you don't call me a cunt

Oh-oh - you make a mistake, mister, if you call me that oh-oh - you can call me sucker but don't call me a cunt

Stop prying into things and affairs of which you got no slightest notion What drives your intrigues - is it jealousy or just a pile of bullshit ?
It's an advice you get it would be better if you don't call me that My tale means nothing to you you never got there's a double-edged truth

You fault me, insult me
Mister Twister, you better hold your tongue now Take care what you call me
You can call me sucker but don't call me a cunt

Oh-oh - you make a mistake, mister, if you call me that oh-oh - Mister Twister I disgust you

Now it's time I made clear
You're annoying me and cause some bad emotions
I can't abide your jeer
You're a reason why I justify abortion Shut up, rein in You're the kind of bloke who needs some beating keep going and I see red you don't know me but you're spreading all shit

You're warned now, beware now
So listen Mister Twister you're better fucking off now Stay out of this, you know damn all

You fault me, insult me
Mister Twister, you better watch your back now
To say this is all I want:
You can call me sucker but don't call me a cunt
