

Hey You

Oz

You say you're born in California
And tell the reason why you're here
Oh, that's the way that leads fortune
And turns me away from the fear

Hey you, don't take your time to yourself
Hey you....

Sometimes your life is rather well
And you know that all goes on
Sometimes your life is like the hell
And almost everything is gone

Hey you, don't take your time to yourself
Hey you....

Have you never seen the king
Who'll do everything he wants
Oh, no those "Everyones" are like him
And make evil and gore

Hey you, don't plan for the future
Hey you....
