

Do You Love Me

Ozark Henry

Well there is no one
And my head acts to see

Well there is no one
And my heart needs to speak
And my soul is on fire
And my head has to scream

Do you love me?
Would you open up your door
Do you love me?
It is all I'm hoping for

(Hey hey)

Here I walk undone
With a heart that bleeds
I can hardly think
For my head can only scream

Do you love me?
Would you open up your door
Do you love me?
It is all I'm hoping for

(Hey hey)

Do you love me?
Do you love me?
Do you love me?
Do you love me?
(Hey hey)
