

Play Politics

Ozark Henry

what ever happens right now
ever happens now
what ever happens right now

Your respect's a dépêche-mode imposing what you are it's not that you really care you justify your crime you hold the line

this is not the way to call on loud this is not the way to let it down this is not the way to hang it out o man it's appalling your calling's a lie you call on my empathy whenever you have none your ether sensation bugs me to you it's fun stirring up the crowd

"scotty, beam me up, beam me up" your harshness it grows on me it really gets me down no blood lines nor family ground will ever answer for these lines you crown

ever happens now

"beam me up, scotty, beam me up"
