

Let It Die

Ozzy Osbourne

I'm a rockstar, I'm a dealer
I'm a servant, I'm a leader
I'm a saviour, i'm a sinner, i'm a killer
I'll be anything you want me to be

Silent as a witness
Make your heart race with a death kiss
I'm a soldier in a blood war
In the peace corp I'll be everything you'll ever be

Loser number zero
Play the victim, end up a hero
I'm a teacher, preacher
Liar, I am everything, anything

I'm a mover and a shaker
The oppressor, stimulator
I'm a coward I'm a fighter
I'm everything

It's revelation, celebration, graduation
Times collide watch the world awaken
All the past regrets from days gone by
Let it go, let it die

It's a new day for the faceless
Take the torches from the useless
First amendment, second guesses
All dependant, I'll do anything to help you

Fallen crosses, new alliance
Deep thinkers, modern science
Open guest list, all inclusive
No-one loses, everything you've always wanted

Honest answers for the bruises
Full disclosure, no excuses
Open handshake, clean slate
No hate, living history

Misery, information, revolution
Loading up for execution
Push the button, pull the trigger, I am everything
You are me, I am you
