

You Said It All

Ozzy Osbourne

Well I gotta funny feeling
But I'm gonna stay cool
Something's telling me I'm Gonna break all the rules
Let me tell ya I'm not insecure
But I gotta empty feeling
Think that you got the cure
You said it all, youve got to stay
To proud to fall, no more to say

Well I'm feeling sober but I'm high on the throne
Like a demon sick of sin and tired of being alone
I've made a bed that's hard to lie in
But if loving you is wrong can't do nothing but sin

You said it all, youve got to stay
To proud to fall, no more to say

You said it all, youve got to stay
To proud to fall, no more to say

Let them hang me, they would if they knew
Even half the things I've been doing with you
Walk me to the gallow and drop me to the floor
And watch me swinging and I still want more

You said it all, youve got to stay
To proud to fall, no more to say
