

Junkyard Girl

Jodie was a pretty girl
She's was smelling like stub
In a junkyard I met her
She was a really big snob

And you know, when patchouli's on the booty
I can't restrain my temper anymore
Let it flow, I know my duty, lovely beauty
Come with me and let it go

When we both get drunk
Sometimes we do it
When I'm talking junk
Usually not
Because you're a punk
Sometimes you get naked
And I get on

How much I loved that girl
She was living the pub
Paid her one beer and you got her
In fact she was a big slut
