

Lonely Hearts' Boulevard

Paddy and the Rats

Let's start your life on this parade
take a deep breath and
stop this old masquerade
And we're singing out
Loud and proud all the pain
While we're marching
On the Lonely Hearts' Boulevard

Let's start your life on this parade
take a deep breath and
stop this old masquerade
And we're singing out
Loud and proud all the pain
While we're marching
On the Lonely Hearts' Boulevard

Think you're the only
Who's feeling lonely
You love to hate yourself
You're lost and broken
Have to join in
The Band of the damned

Coz all of us is wearing scars
The deepest cut is what we are
So never ever think about the shame
Coz it reminds you when you see it
Don't succumb when you're defeated
Coz you are here to bear the pain

Let's start your life on this parade
take a deep breath and
stop this old masquerade
And we're singing out
Loud and proud all the pain
While we're marching
On the Lonely Hearts' Boulevard

You only feel alive
When the cold knife
Cuts into deep
Life is ignored
When you feel bored
You lose everything

It's just a desperate cry for help
Coz today is just another hell
But you're the one who bring you out from there
You only think your soul is dying
Til' you find the silver lining
And if you really want it, it's everywhere

Let's start your life on this parade

Coz there's a lot of pain
Down through the life
And there's a lot of fear
As we walk through the dark

Let's start your life on this parade
While we're marching

Let's start your life on this parade
