

Place For Hell

Paddy and the Rats

Hitting in the mouth
Blood is tasting rough
Agression pulls me down
But I need to stand tough
There's no mystery
Human will be fell
Sound of misery
Screamin' as a shrill bell

Don't tolerate this mess
The darkness has no tomorrow
Fight back the savageness today
Believe me, it's the only way

Your heart is beating
Absued on the floor
All your feelings
Are lying like a raped whore
As you take the pain
You will be shameless
As son of Love and Rage
You can break the madness

No one will die for you
Coz there's no more place in heaven
Lie seems to be the truth
So well, this world's the best place for hell
Don't tolerate this mess
The darkness has no tomorrow
Fight back the savageness
Vengeance will beguile your sorrow
No one will die for you
Coz there's no more place in heaven
Lie seems to be the truth
So well, this world's the best place for hell
