

We Are One

Paddy and the Rats

I'm not going through, pointless devotion
Behind a smile, slowly bleed inside
There are many fights, I wish I didn't fight for
All the heathen gods and many more besides
Ain't no love and life in the concrete kingdoms
Ungodly kings rule the world divide
They're shrinking from the sun, do have no wisdom
In the iron age there's no faith to keep the light

We Are One

Creating laws by violation
But their mighty guns dont work against our love
Let the brightness comes into the heart of nation
Coz we have one soul and faith in sun

We Are One

We are strong together in one, hey!
Celebrate An diugh's son
Let the moon make the wolf cry
Leave alone the fear in dark
Now you can't feel the pain, not anymore
In your glittering crystal bones
Coz you got the key to deed
It's your clean soul
Coz you know the speech of the universe
