Pagan's Mind

Reflecting who I am
I see myself again
I see myself in different lives
Time is running short for me
Like they cry out in my eye
Inside the walls my waiting cell

Time goes on and see - miracle set free
In my mind, there's someone calling

Somewhere I'll fly away
High on wings, I'm gazing from the sky
In silent emptiness
I close my eyes

Tonight in darker symphonies
And serenades I cry
Break through the walls who capture me
Let my spirit cry out in my life!
From the sinking land in pain
Saviours from the sky

Time goes on and see - miracle set free
In my mind, there's someone calling

Calling for the cry to mesmerize
Through time

Somewhere I'll fly away
High on wings, I'm gazing from the sky
In silent emptiness
I close my eyes (2x)

With my mind, somewhere else I'm waiting
High on wings, I'm gazing from the sky (2x)
