In Brilliant White Light

Pagan's Mind

Tender light upon frozen ground Approaching the celestial one Scene of beauty appear before My fainting eye - a sign

Floating closer, transcendent light On this magic night revealed From far, creator of time" Answers in time

On your dimension You're destined to be A passive observer Of life's mystery"

Heed the call Of the enlightened conscious ones Time has ceased By the trance, you'll see the light

Bring the sign Bring it onto The humankind to all

A prophecy of our reign
