

Intermission

Pagan's Mind

Follow the fire

I clench the new horizons
Searching for the inner light
I watch as time goes by
To find the reasons why
To find the reasons to my prayer

Time will conceal you
Time will unveil

End of the line, I'll be waiting in time
By the stars to be reunited with you
Fire of life
Intermission in time
In the end to be reunited with you

I touch the light of morning
Flying high above the seas
This mission never ends
I'll find the key that bends
I'll find the key that changes all

Time will conceal you
In sacred ways

End of the line, I'll be waiting in time
By the stars to be reunited with you
Fire of life
Intermission in time
In the end to be reunited with you

Fire of life

innocence lost behind the walls of time once again free my mind and realize lies keep again from me reaching again

End of the line, I'll be waiting in time
By the stars to be reunited with you
Fire of life
Intermission in time
In the end to be reunited with you
am waiting here

I'll be waiting
