

New World Order

Pagan's Mind

From crimson burning skies
Arrival of unknown existence
Approaching closer
Disconnecting understanding
To be free

Somewhere lost in time I`m dreaming
And my lifeline is closing in
Freed now, Unchained

Echoes in time
We`re left behind
To understand
This mystery haunts me
Seeking, finding, codes entwining
Somewhere deep inside me
Racing through my soul
Freed now, Unchained
Alive again

Coded minds forever
Key within
Inside your mind

Back to their reign
Lights are fading
They finally arrived
To The New World Order
Analyzing humans being

Standing up against the light
Facing fear

Somewhere lost in time I`m dreaming
And my lifeline is closing in
Freed now unchained
Coded minds forever calling
Key within
Inside your mind
