When Angels Unite

Pagan's Mind

When angels unite I see your eyes watching the night Watching the lights Feel, tantalizing You are a dream I can not describe See, I'm not awake I close my eyes and wish it was real Closer, to what I've become

Watching my destiny And I can no longer wait The moment has arrived Here you are by my side And this is for real The pain we feel, left behind See, I'm still awake Open my eyes, and know it's for real
