

Windy

Page France

I believe in windy days when everything gets blown away oh
Please let me be blown away I
Promise you I'm not afraid
I will sing a circus song
About the birds and lion hearts
But please if I forget to stop
Remind me who I am and what you are
'Cause when our eyes close we're the same
'Cause when our eyes close we're the same
I believe in kings and queens
And everything stuck in between
But please if you must take a peek
Don't spoil for me my mystery
