

Dirty Woman

Pain

I just fell out the sky it's been a hell of a ride, I'm back again
Things were looking good, I was on the move Until I met you

So we lose in the sky got a smile of an Angel Come here and spread your wings
I'm just a dirty old man trying to play your game I'll set your wings on fire

She locks me down
I'm in for the count
I'm going down

Oh dirty woman
she tricks you with her smile
My dirty woman
she's in for the kill, killing me

Her needs
her life
not afraid to show what's on her mind

I never listen to a word of what people say just stay away from you Cause I don't need a woman to slow me down, Don't want to sing the blues
No!

She locks me down
I'm in for the count
I'm going down down down

Oh dirty woman
she tricks you with her smile
My dirty woman
she's in for the kill, killing me

Oh dirty woman
she tricks you with her smile
My dirty woman
she's in for the kill, killing me

(2x)

Oh dirty woman
she tricks you in her slime
My dirty woman
she's in for the kill, killing me

Oh dirty woman
