You Tear The World In Two

Pale Saints

Tear the world in two
And choose a half
But look inside you
You are what you are
I've seen it through
And you will too
I can tell that you
Feel these things too

And teach yourself to walk
Into the hole
Exploding in your heart
I've seen it through
And you will too
I can tell that you
Feel these things too

I've seen it through
And you will too
I can tell that you
Feel these things too
You tear the world in two
I'll destroy you
