

Blood & Roses

Pallas

I keep your picture in my head
The way you move, the way you smile
But blood lies all around
A rose lies broken on the ground

Choose a moment to leave the room
Cut this feeling with a knife
Swollen tears roll down, down
A thread has broken on this life

I will follow you down
I will follow you down into a deep deep sleep

I keep your picture in my heart
The way you move me with your smile
Try to stop the tears roll down
I'll be with you in a while

I will follow you down
I will follow you down
I will follow you
I will follow you down into a deep deep sleep
