

Taste My Own Tears

Paloma Faith

What would it take for me to feel again?
I'm a dead girl walking with no shoes again
It's been a long time coming since somebody hurt me
Someone kiss me on my neck!

I was addicted to your danger, but now I fall asleep
And the angels weep
It's been a long time coming since somebody move me
Someone got a hold on me

And it's making me crazy
Cause I can't stop thinking of you
Oh, and nothing can save me
Can't help coming back
Cause I don't feel nothing 'til I taste my own tears

Why would I do this to myself again
Drag myself through the dirt when I can see the end
It's been a long time coming since somebody knew me
Someone got inside my head

My heart is aching with this loneliness
Tempted to call you to sleep in my bed
It's been a long time coming since somebody touched me
Someone got a hold on me

And it's making me crazy
Cause I can't stop thinking of you
Oh, nothing can save me
Can't help coming back
Cause I don't feel nothing 'til I taste my own tears

Baby, baby, baby, I'm a moth to a flame
When I'm evil, I can't hold myself back
This love can't be tamed, baby, baby, baby
It's making me crazy
Cause I can't stop thinking of you
Knowing nothing can save me
Can't help coming back
Cause I don't feel nothing 'til I taste my own tears

Said it's making me crazy
I can't stop thinking of you
Aw, nothing can save me
Can't help coming back
Cause I don't feel nothing
No, I don't feel nothing
Said I won't feel nothing 'til I taste my own tears.
