

Runaway

Pandora

(Mm, yeah)
Ive been down, Ive been hurt
Ive been lost, Ive been weak
My emotions have been out of reach
When I thought everything was okey
I was wrong I have to runaway
Bye bye baby, goodbye
Im gonna run run runaway
Follow my heart
Im gonna run run runaway
A brand new start
I can feel for the first time
Im gonna run run runaway
(Mm, hoo)
I can love, I can feel
I can breath, I can see
So alive Ive never felt so free
I am stronger than ever before
Now Im gone so you can close the door
Bye bye baby, goodbye
Im gonna run run runaway
Follow my heart
Im gonna run run runaway
A brand new start
I can feel for the first time
Im gonna run run runaway
Im gonna run run runaway
Follow my heart
Im gonna run run runaway
A brand new start
I can feel for the first time
Im gonna run run runaway
It doesnt't't matter where life will take me
Im going with the flow higher than higher
It doesnt't't matter if luck will forsake me
Im gonna runaway
Im gonna runaway
Run run runaway
Follow my heart
Im gonna run run runaway
A brand new start
I can feel for the first time
Im gonna run run runaway
Im gonna run run runaway
Follow my heart
A brand new start
I can feel for the first time
I can feel for the first time
