

Heavy Metal Rules

Pantera

All my life, it's been the same
Too many rules if you wanna play the game
Don't do this, don't do that
Your mom and dad, they know where it's at I'll show 'em all, a thing or two
I found a game I know how to do
Put on your leather, snap on your spikes
Me and the boys are hot rockin' tonight
I'll stick my fist, high in the air
I'll make a sign, 'cause I don't care
Heavy Metal Rules!

It's the same corruption, everywhere I look
There's a brand new rule inside a brand new book
Some people claim that the devil is loose
They blame it all on the rock 'n' roll youth
That don't stop me, I'm on a roll
I found the noise, bangin' my soul
So take it up, loud as you can
There's just one rule that I understand
I'll stick my fist, high in the air
I'll make a sign, 'cause I don't care
Heavy Metal Rules!
