Rock the World

In these times Of confusion and sin We must redeem Our human ways This force that Fights to live Will fight Till it dies And rise again To save the day We all Rock the world We all Rock the world The power grows To destroy This flag of hate That waves so High in the air We raise our fists In rebellion we stand Our hungry hearts Set the snare We all Rock the world We all Rock the world Ageless as time Change is revealed We will rock for you We all Rock the world We all Rock the world
