

Hey you, do you hide your face behind the lies?
I can feel the hate that's always flowing through you.
Your lust for power clouds your mind inside
when the bleeding moon is shining bright.

Oh...I see the scare in your eyes,
and all behind a face cold as ice.
It's time to pay the most expensive price:
I'll become a Wolf in disguise.

When the sun goes down and darkness falls
and the shadows haunt these burning eyes,
all delusions are gone.
You'll have to try to see
again my tempting smile.

Oh...I wish you'd taste my sinful pain.
I'm an unseen guest from your bad dream.
Getting more real than it seems
Just say a prayer and carry your fate.

And when this masquerade comes to an end,
I'm here to take your pain away.
Although I'm a creature in a human shape,
prepare to play my twisted game.

Oh...I wish you'd taste my sinful pain.
I'm an unseen guest from your bad dream.
It's time to pay the most expensive price:
I'll become a Wolf in disguise.

Oh...I see the scare in your eyes,
and all behind a face cold as ice.
Getting more real than it seems
Just say a prayer and carry your fate.
