

I am scared (8x)

Pray, I said pray (4x)
Pray, pray, pray, pray!

I will push away from a love that is close to me, I'll go away
(2x)

Pray, pray

Because I, I think I'm scared of myself
My problems and faults, they lay upon a shelf
Bring it out with the shroom, I'm paranoid, laying crouched in a room
I will push away from a love that is close to me, I'll go away
I will push away from a love that is close to me, I'll go away

Pray, pray

Because I, I need to be stable like my buddy with grey bell
Called up my mom, cause I knew she was strong
Talking about my Jesus, my daddy, and bongs
Talking about my Jesus, my daddy, and bongs

Called up my mom, cause i know she was strong
Talking about my Jesus, my daddy, and bongs
(4x)

Because I, I think I'm scared of myself
My problems and faults, they lay upon a shelf
Bring it out with the shroom, I'm paranoid, laying crouched in
a room
Aside from the world that I know, people and whatnot, and girls that do blow
Brought back to childhood, not close to feeling good

I will push away from a love that is close to me, I'll go away
I will push away from a love that is close to me, I'll go away,
away

I am scared (8x)

Go! (4x)

Go away

Go aaaaway (3x)

Go away!
