

Breathe You In

Papa Roach

Why you all gotta learn the hard way?
Why you all gotta burn those bridges down?
Now that I feel so numb
Can I just be me for fuck sake?

Maybe I don't have a purpose
Maybe I cut way too deep
Or maybe I scratch the surface
To find out that I'm not worthless

And I've never been so alive

I feel the fire burning underneath my skin
Now that
I breathe in, I breathe you in
I feel the freedom from this hopelessness within Now that
I breathe in, I breathe you in

I should've stopped when I saw you breakin'
I should've stopped but I had to see it through
Now that I've come undone
I know why I've been forsaken

Maybe I'm too weak to hold you
Maybe I'm just out of range
So sorry I suffocate you
It must feel like I hate you

But I have never been so alive

I feel the fire burning underneath my skin
Now that
I breathe in, I breathe you in
I feel the freedom from this hopelessness within
Now that
I breathe in, I breathe you in

I've been afraid to show you what I'm made of
And all this time what was I so afraid of
You never did anything to make me feel this way
To make me feel this way..

I feel the fire burning underneath my skin
Now that
I breathe in, I breathe you in
I feel the freedom from this hopelessness within
Now that
I breathe in, I breathe you in

I'll breathe you in, I'll breathe you in
